My Helping Hands chart

We help at home because we're part of this family. Each time you do a helping habit, color a circle. Each circle is one Helping Hands point, and you can earn one point for each habit a day.

My Helping Hands points this week: _____

Points can unlock a privilege

Pick one together as a family. Some ideas:

- Pick the family movie
- Choose Saturday breakfast
- Pick the game for game night
- Choose the park we visit
- Pick the music in the car
- Stay up 15 minutes later

Our privilege: _____

For grown-ups: Helping Hands points are never paid in money. Allowance comes every week no matter what, because it's for practicing with money, and helping at home is how kids belong. Most kids like being noticed far more than being paid. Count the points together on Family Money Day.
